Nebuchadnezzar dreamed
A strange forgotten dream
And after his troubled sleep
It slipped his memory
He tried to find it in his mind it seems.

Nebuchadnezzar cried
To the smart and the wise
To tell him of his dream
And what his nightmare means
And they to tried to strain their minds it seems

When Daniel, the Jew boy,
Said he knew of the dream
And what's more, everything that it means.

'You dreamed of a statued man
With silver chest, arms and hands.
His belly and thighs were cast
In ordinary brass
With iron legs and feet of clay-iron mixed.'

'As the golden head watched
A mountain spew forth a rock.
With a mighty Godly smash
To bits the statue crashed
Of silver and gold and clay and iron and brass.'

"Oh Daniel, you Jew boy,
That is just what I dreamed.
Now tell me if you can what it all means."

'The golden head is your great kingdom.
The other parts are kingdoms to come.
Kingdoms which rule the world
The ugly beautiful world
And like them all, they will fall to my Lord.'

'The mountain is my dear Lord.
And the rock is my Lord.
And when the smashing's done
The rock will then become
A large mountain to overcome the world.'

And Daniel, the Jew boy
Looked up at Nebuchadnezz
And he knew in his heart that All were pleased.

Nebuchadnezzar dreamed
A strange forgotten dream
